

Public Administration Colloquium Series

Spring 2012

Department of Public Administration
University of North Texas

Time: 12:30 – 1.30PM (Friday)
Place: Chilton Hall, Computer Lab 270

- 3 February “Emergency and Temporary Shelters: Past, Current, and Future Research”
Sudha Arlikatti & Simon A. Andrew
- 17 February “What Explains Small and Medium Size Companies’ decisions to Support Government-Sponsored Collaboration Initiatives?” (To be presented at the 42nd Annual Conference of the Urban Affairs Association) Kyujin Jung
- “Vulnerable and Special Populations: Challenges in Providing Temporary Shelters for Sex Offenders” (To be presented at the 25th Annual Meeting of the Public Administration Theory Network) Carlos Samuel & Sudha Arlikatti
- 2 March “Intergovernmental Grants, Revenue Diversity, and Fund Balance: Local Reactions to the ‘Flypaper Effect’” (To be presented at the 70th Annual Midwest Political Science Conference) Siwaporn Chaicharoen & Skip Krueger
- “City Manager and Revenue” (To be presented at the 70th Annual Midwest Political Science Conference) Kraiwuth Jaikampan (Oil) & Skip Krueger
- 30 March “E-Government in Taiwanese Local Government: Linkage between Government and Civil Society” (To be presented at the 70th Annual Midwest Political Science Conference) Yi-en Tso (Mike) & Simon A. Andrew
- “The Influence of City Managers on the Decisions of Bond Issuance: Some Evidences from Texas Charter Cities” (To be presented at the 70th Annual Midwest Political Science Conference) Wei-Liang Lung & Simon A. Andrew
- 13 April “Acculturation and Volunteering of Korean Americans in the U.S” HeeSoun Jang

The Public Administration Colloquium series is coordinated by Dr. Simon A. Andrew in consultation with the faculty at the Department of Public Administration. Please e-mail any inquiries to sandrew@unt.edu