B.A. with a Major in Nonprofit Leadership Studies

Three-Year Plan¹

The Department of Public Administration is now offering a Bachelors in Nonprofit Leadership Studies. The new degree prepares students for a career in the nonprofit sector. A major in Nonprofit Leadership Studies requires 57 semester credit hours. 33 hours of required courses, and 15 hours of supporting courses, and 9 electives at upper-division level.

The following three-year plan is one example of a variety of ways in which you can complete your chosen degree in three years, and will serve as a guide for you to design your pathway to degree completion.

- A bachelor's degree requires the completion of a minimum of 120 hours, with 42 advanced hours.
- Students are encouraged to see their academic advisor each semester for help with program decisions and selection of classes. Students are responsible for meeting all course prerequisites.
- The course selections each semester may vary. The schedule of classes can be viewed online through your myUNT account. Registering for classes at the earliest possible date each semester is strongly recommended.
